

Project Name: Case Western Reserve University

Project Location: Cleveland, OH

Project Overview

When it comes to providing non-standard casework, CiF is one of the premier providers with the Wolstein building being a prime example. This project includes high end, high quality materials, unique hardware requiring special machining and elaborate fully serviced reagent racks. This comprehensive product offering contributed to making this a truly custom casework lab.

- CiF Premium E-Line Quarter Cut White Maple Wood Casework

Project Statistics

- CiF Contract: $3.4 million

Project Participants

- Architect: van Dijk Westlake
- General Contractor: Hunt Construction Group
- Dealer: CiF Direct

